Events in Singapore and Vietnam

Chinese New Year dinner   Feb 21

HKETO in Singapore hosted some 200 guests from the government and business sectors and the Hong Kong community in a dinner at the Clifford Pier to celebrate the Year of Dragon. In his opening speech, our Director, Mr Owin Fung, stressed the importance of ever-growing bilateral relations between Hong Kong and ASEAN countries including Singapore to the overall growth of the region. He also re-affirmed Hong Kong's commitment to free trade, unimpeded investment and rules-based multilateralism, and introduced the latest sustainable developments in the city.

Chinese New Year luncheon of Hong Kong Singapore Business Association   Feb 23

Addressing some 200 guests in a welcome speech, our Director, Mr Owin Fung, highlighted the Hong Kong Government's proactive and catalytic role in driving the economy. He encouraged the audience to explore the city's rich culinary and cultural offerings as well as natural scenery.

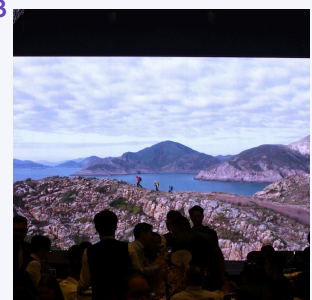

Luncheon and a seminar co-organised with Hong Kong Business Association Vietnam and Vietnam Chamber of Commerce and Industry respectively Mar 19

Connecting with some 170 guests from the business and financial sectors of Ho Chi Minh City, Ms Alpha Lau, Director-General of Investment Promotion of InvestHK, gave an update on Hong Kong's business environment. She also shared the market outlook in the fashion, food and beverage, fintech and innovation, and family office industries in Hong Kong.

25th anniversary gala dinner of Hong Kong Business Association Vietnam   April 13

Addressing some 200 guests, Our Director, Mr Owin Fung, outlined Hong Kong government initiatives to boost the flow of trade, business and people between Vietnam and Hong Kong. He encouraged the guests to explore the city's natural scenery, mega events, international conferences and exhibitions, as well as arts and cultural performances.

A video showcasing the pristine beauty of Hong Kong UNESCO Global Geopark was played at the dinner.